

Commissions, Fees and Charges Guide

Financial Administration services

Effective 23 October 2025

This brochure explains the commissions, fees and charges for our Financial Administration services.

Financial Administration services are the services that we provide when the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) appoints us as a person's administrator. We act as the administrator for people who aren't able to manage their financial and legal affairs on their own (clients). This could be because of a client's mental illness, dementia or other disability.

This brochure also explains our commissions, fees and charges for any extra services we provide for a client (you) such as preparing tax returns and financial plans, and legal services.

All fees and charges include the goods and services tax (GST).

Financial Administration services

We charge the following commissions and fees for acting as your administrator.

Income commission

Worked out on the gross income received. "Gross" is the amount or value before tax or other deductions have been taken out.

Income type	Commission
On any pensions and allowances received from Centrelink and the Department of Veterans Affairs	3.3%
On all other income	6.6%

The commissions, fees and charges above also apply when we are appointed for a limited or restricted range of financial matters (but not for urgent or temporary orders).

Capital commission

Worked out on the gross value of any asset that is sold or brought in during the administration.

An asset includes property and belongings that have value, like a house, a car, bank accounts or shares.

Value of the asset	Commission
Up to $500,000	3.3%
Greater than $500,000 and up to $1,000,000	$16,500 plus 1.5% of the amount over $500,000
Greater than $1,000,000 and up to $3,000,000	$24,000 plus 0.55% of the amount over $1,000,000
Greater than $3,000,000	$35,000 plus 0.44% of the amount over $3,000,000

→ Commission on other assets

If, at the end of our administration, we haven't received reasonable payment for our work, we can charge a commission of 2.2% on the gross value of any assets that have not been sold or brought in. We need permission from VCAT to charge this commission if VCAT has revoked (or cancelled) our appointment.

→ Urgent or temporary order administration

VCAT may appoint us to administer a client's financial affairs under an urgent or temporary order. We charge $216 an hour for this service.

Administration for missing persons

VCAT may appoint us to administer a missing person's financial affairs. We charge $216 an hour for this service.

Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) Examinations – Guardianship list

Client assets valued between	Fees
$0 and $25,000	$0
$25,001 and $50,000	$86.70 per hour
$50,001 or more	$213.70 per hour

Extra services

We may also provide and charge (where the relevant circumstance applies) for a range of extra services that relate to a client's finances and property.

Taxation services

Many clients need to lodge a tax return. As your administrator, we will review your tax affairs each year. If you need a return, we will prepare and lodge it for you.

The time listed for each service below is based on how long a standard return, or a standard review, usually takes. We will charge any extra time needed at $363 an hour, or a percentage of that if it's under an hour.

Tax returns	Fees
Individual tax return (including for the beneficiary of a trust)	$385 per standard return (1.1 hours)

→ Tax reviews (manual)

We review your tax affairs to make sure they meet your obligations to the Australian Tax Office. If you don't need to lodge a tax return, but we have reviewed your affairs, we may still charge a fee for the review.

Tax reviews (manual)	Fees
Final tax review for a deceased estate or trust	$726 per standard review (2 hours)
Other tax reviews (not including those listed below)	$286 per review

→ Automated tax reviews

The automated tax review is an annual computer-run review of each client's tax to see if you need to do a tax return. Where the automated tax review shows that no tax return is needed, and the value of the client's assets is $10,000 or more, a fee will be charged for the review as set out below. Where the automated tax review does not show whether a tax return is needed, the automated tax review fee will not be charged. Instead, a manual review will be done by an accountant: see "Tax reviews (manual)" above for the fee that applies.

Fees for automated tax reviews depend on the value of the client's assets.

Value of client's assets	Fees
Less than $10,000	Free
Between $10,000 and $20,000	$69 per review

Legal services

As your administrator, we may use the services of lawyers for legal matters that need to be looked after. Our in-house legal team can handle many types of legal matters, including:

- testator family maintenance claims: where we make a claim against someone's estate to attempt to secure you a share or a larger share.
- misappropriation claims: where your funds or property have been taken without permission.
- matters involving elder abuse: where an act by someone, such as a family member, has caused you harm.
- removal of executors: where executors have failed to act properly.
- removal of caveats: a caveat is a restriction that can be added to the title of a property. It stops the owner from doing something with the property without first getting permission. A caveat left on a title can delay a property settlement, and we may need to apply to court to remove it.
- partition of co-owned land: where there are two owners and one doesn't want to sell, we may obtain orders from VCAT to divide and sell a property.

Role	Fees
Senior lawyer	$563 an hour
Lawyer	$455 an hour
Junior lawyer	$358 an hour
Para-legal or law clerk	$271 an hour
Legal secretary or administrative support	$228 an hour
Photocopying for legal services	$0.50 a page
Successful "no win, no fee" matter*	See below

* We can use this option if we're making a claim for a client who doesn't have enough money to pay for the legal services that are needed. We can then provide the legal services and, if the claim or legal action isn't successful, we won't charge for our legal services. However, if the claim is successful, we will charge:

- the fees for the legal services that were used – based on the charges listed in the table above; and
- an extra fee up to 25% of the total amount of the legal fees.

If the client's administration ends before the legal claim is finished, the client's estate will need to pay the legal fees listed above, but not the extra fee.

If we outsource legal work to a law firm or barrister, the client will need to pay the fees that the law firm or barrister charges.

The client will also pay any fees charged by a court during a matter.
